

Larry Weil

Larry Weil is the Planning Director for the City of West Fargo and has served in that capacity since 1990. Prior to taking this position, Larry was Planning Director in Williston. He was born and raised in North Dakota and completed undergraduate and graduate work at NDSU. Larry has a Masters Degree in Community and Regional Planning. He has a wife, three children and two grandchildren. He is active in church and community.

Larry has been on the Board of Directors for Western Planning Resources representing the North Dakota Planning Association since the organization was incorporated in 1990 and on the Editorial Board of The Western Planner since the mid-1980s. He has served in the capacity of Treasurer, Vice President and President of WPR and is the immediate past President.

Larry has also been active in the Western Central Chapter of the American Planning Association being a board member when the organization was first formed. He held various offices for the organization.

Larry has been active in the North Dakota Planning Association since he began his professional planning career in the state in 1982. He has been an officer at different times serving in various capacities including Vice President and President. He is currently on the Board of Directors.